RE: MUR 6328

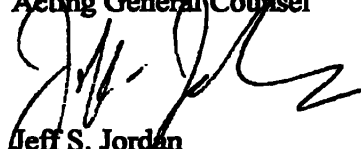

Dear Mr. Clinton:

The Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint received on July 15, 2010. On March 17, 2011, based upon the information provided in the complaint, and information provided by the respondent, the Commission decided to dismiss the complaint and close its file in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on March 17, 2011.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g (a)(8).

Sincerely,

Christopher Hughey
Acting General Counsel

In the Matter of

MUR 6328

ALLEGRETTI FOR CONGRESS AND

RONALD R. GRAVINO, AS TREASURER

MICHAEL ALLEGRETTI

) DISMISSAL AND CASE CLOSURE
) UNDER THE ENFORCEMENT
) PRIORITY SYSTEM

CELA

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

Under the Enforcement Priority System ("EPS"), the Commission uses formal scoring criteria to allocate its resources and decide which cases to pursue. These criteria include, but are not limited to, an assessment of (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, both with respect to the type of activity and the amount in violation, (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the electoral process, (3) the legal complexity of issues raised in the case, (4) recent trends in potential violations of the Act, and (5) development of the law with respect to certain subject matters. It is the Commission's policy that pursuing low-rated matters, compared to other higher-rated matters on the Enforcement docket, warrants the exercise of its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss certain cases. The Office of General Counsel has scored MUR 6328 as a low-rated matter and has also determined that it should not be referred to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Office. This Office therefore recommends that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss MUR 6328.

In this matter, the complainant, Stephen Clinton, alleges that Allegretti for Congress and Ronald R. Gravino, in his official capacity as treasurer ("the Committee"), and Michael Allegretti (collectively "the respondents"), were "in direct violation of the section of election law/regulation" requiring disclaimers on campaign signs, as set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.11(a) and (b)(1). The complaint includes a photograph of what appears

1 to be an Allegretti yard sign, the text of which reads: "REPUBLICAN MICHAEL
2 ALLEGRETTI FOR CONGRESS," which does not include a disclaimer stating who had paid
3 for and authorized the sign.

4 Richard A. Zimmer, the respondents' designated counsel, filed a submission on behalf
5 of the respondents, which included an affidavit from Raymond Riley, the Committee's
6 campaign manager. The response acknowledges that proper disclaimers had been left off a
7 single order of 500 yard signs, but asserts that the omission was "a single isolated mistake" by 8 an inexperienced campaign staffer. After the omission was discovered the Committee took 9 remedial action by printing disclaimer stickers containing the phrase "Paid for by Allegretti for 10 Congress, Inc.,"¹ which were then affixed to the remaining signs in the Committee's
11 headquarters, as well as to "any surviving lawn signs that [did] not contain the disclaimer."
12 The respondents also state that every other public communication by the campaign included
13 the disclaimer "Paid for by Allegretti for Congress, Inc." Enclosed with the response are 14 photocopies of campaign signs that include the requisite disclaimers.

15 Political committee campaign materials that require disclaimers include, inter alia,
16 yard signs, see 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a); see also 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(a). The respondents have
17 conceded that disclaimers were necessary, and have indicated that the Committee made efforts
18 to remedy the initial absence of disclaimers by ordering new signs containing proper
19 disclaimers and affixing disclaimer stickers to the yard signs at issue.

20 Although the single order of 500 yard signs lacked the appropriate disclaimers, the 21 scope of the violation appears to be limited to this initial order of yard signs and the omission
22 was corrected once it was brought to the Committee's attention. Accordingly, under EPS, the

¹ According to the Committee's Statement of Organization, its name is "Allegretti for Congress." The abbreviation "Inc." is not included. The Committee does not address this discrepancy.

1 Office of General Counsel has scored MUR 6328 as a low-rated matter and therefore, in
2 furtherance of the Commission's priorities, as discussed above, the Office of General Counsel
3 believes that the Commission should exercise its prosecutorial discretion and dismiss this
4 matter. See Heckler v. Chaney, 470 U.S. 821 (1985). Additionally, this Office recommends
5 that the Commission remind Allegretti for Congress and Ronald R. Gravino, in his official
6 capacity as treasurer, of the requirements under 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.11(a)
7 and (b)(1), concerning the use of appropriate disclaimers.

8 RECOMMENDATIONS

9 The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission dismiss MUR 6328,
10 close the file, and approve the appropriate letters. Additionally, this Office recommends that 11 the Commission remind Allegretti for Congress and Ronald R. Gravino, in his official capacity
12 as treasurer, of the requirements under 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.11(a) and 13 (b)(1), concerning the use of appropriate disclaimers.

RE: MUR 6328
Allegretti for Congress

Dear Mr. Zimmer:

On July 20, 2010, the Federal Election Commission notified your clients, Allegretti for Congress and Ronald Gravino, in his official capacity as treasurer, of a complaint filed against them alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act"), On March 17, 2011. Based upon the information contained in the complaint, and information provided by you, the Commission decided to dismiss the complaint and close its file in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on March 17, 2011.

The Commission encourages your clients to review the General Counsel's Report, which sets forth the statutory and regulatory provisions considered by the Commission in this matter. A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your clients' information and future reference. The Commission reminds your clients to take steps to ensure that their conduct is in compliance with 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.11(a) and (b)(1), concerning the use of appropriate disclaimers on public communications paid for by political committees. For further information on the Act, please refer to the Commission's website at www.fec.gov or contact the Commission's Public Information Division at (202) 694-1100.

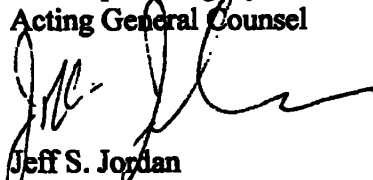

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003).
