RE: MUR 6374

Dear Ms. Ros:

The Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint received on September 14, 2010. On August 3, 2011, based upon the information provided in the complaint, and information provided by the respondents, the Commission decided to dismiss the complaint and close its file in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on August 3, 2011.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

RE: MURs 6374 and 6408

Dear Mr. Arrojo:

On September 17, 2010 and November 1, 2010, the Federal Election Commission notified Roly Arrojo for Congress and you, as treasurer, of two complaints alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act"). On August 3, 2011, based upon the information contained in the complaints, and information provided by you, the Commission decided to dismiss the complaints and close its files in these matters.

The Commission encourages you to review the General Counsel's Report, which sets forth the statutory and regulatory provisions considered by the Commission in these matters. A copy of the dispositive General Counsel's Report is enclosed for your information and future reference. The Commission reminds you to take steps to ensure that your conduct is in compliance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(a) and 434(a), concerning the timely filing of the Statement of Organization and subsequent FEC reports. Furthermore, your FEC reports should contain a schedule of expenditures made by the Committee, which must include items such as ballot access fees and payments for campaign-related mailers, and which must be itemized with respect to a particular payee if such payments aggregate in excess of $200 per calendar year to that payee. Such expenditures also trigger the filing requirement for the Statement of Organization if they aggregate in excess of $5,000. If expenditures are made using your personal funds, those transactions should be reported as contributions to the Committee and expenditures from the Committee when obligated.

For further information on the Act, please refer to the Commission's website at www.fec.gov or contact the Commission's Public Information Division at (202)

20
21 Under the Enforcement Priority System ("EPS"), the Commission uses formal scoring
22 criteria to allocate its resources and decide which cases to pursue. These criteria include, but 23 are not limited to, an assessment of (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, both with respect
24 to the type of activity and the amount in violation, (2) the apparent impact the alleged 25 violation may have had on the electoral process, (3) the legal complexity of issues raised in 26 the case, (4) recent trends in potential violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 27 1971, as amended ("the Act"), and (5) development of the law with respect to certain subject
28 matters. It is the Commission's policy that pursuing low-rated matters, compared to other
29 higher-rated matters on the Enforcement docket, warrants the exercise of its prosecutorial
30 discretion to dismiss certain cases. The Office of General Counsel has scored MURs 6374
31 and 6408 as low-rated matters and has also determined that they should not be referred to the 32 Alternative Dispute Resolution Office. This Office therefore recommends that the 33 Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss MURs 6374 and 6408. As these

11044301098

1 matters involve the same respondents and similar issues, we have consolidated them into one
2 General Counsel's Report.

3 I. MUR 6374

4 In this matter, complainant Liliana Ross asserts that congressional candidate Jose
5 Rolando "Roly" Arrojo¹ and his campaign committee, Roly Arrojo for Congress and Jose
6 Rolando Arrojo, in his official capacity as treasurer ("the Committee"), failed to register and 7 report in a timely manner under the Act. Specifically, Mr. Arrojo failed to file a Statement of 8 Candidacy within fifteen days of attaining "candidate" status and the Committee failed to file
9 a Statement of Organization with the Commission within ten days of when Mr. Arrojo should 10 have filed his Statement of Candidacy. See 2 U.S.C. §§ 431(2)(A), 432(e)(1) and 433(a). In 11 support of her allegations, the complainant attaches a copy of a Committee-issued check to 12 the Florida Department of State in the amount of $10,440.00 for Mr. Arrojo's election
13 qualification fee. The check is dated "April 27, 2010"² and is accompanied by a date stamp of 14 "April 29, 2010" from the "[Florida] Department of State Division of Elections."
15 Nonetheless, according to the complainant, Mr. Arrojo did not file his Statement of 16 Candidacy, and his Committee did not file its Statement of Organization, until July 13, 2010,
17 approximately two and one-half months later. Further, the complainant alleges that the 18 Committee subsequently failed to file any financial disclosure reports, in violation of 2 U.S.C.
19 § 434(a), including a July Quarterly Report, which was due by July 15, 2010, and a Pre-
20 Primary Election Report, which was due by August 12, 2010.

² While the complainant asserts that the check was dated April 7, 2010, as we noted, the copy included with the complaint is dated "April 27, 2010" and is date-stamped "April 29, 2010."

11044301099

1 Responding on behalf of his Committee as well as himself, Mr. Arrojo contends that
2 he filed "the appropriate paperwork" with the State of Florida on April 28, 2010, including
3 payment of the $10,440.00 filing fee. He further asserts that he filed both a Statement of 4 Organization and a Statement of Candidacy with the Commission, but maintains that his
5 campaign committee had not raised or spent more than $5,000 and was therefore not required
6 to file financial disclosure reports with Commission.

7 II. MUR 6408

8 Complainant Mariana L. Cancio reiterates the allegations raised in MUR 6374
9 concerning the purported failure by Mr. Arrojo and his Committee to file financial disclosure
10 reports. Enclosed with the complaint is a copy of an Arrojo campaign mailer which, the 11 complainant asserts, "clearly shows that the committee has incurred financial expenses in 12 postage and printing."

13 In response, Mr. Arrojo submitted an email characterizing the complaint as "baseless 14 and incorrect." Mr. Arrojo also states that, since he had not raised or expended more than 15 $5,000, his "understanding is that [he was] not [] required to file the fundraising reports."

16 III. ANALYSIS

17 In addressing the issue of whether the respondents' filings were timely and complete,
18 we observe that under 2 U.S.C. § 431(2)(A), an individual becomes a candidate for federal 19 office when he or she has received or made in excess of $5,000 in contributions or 20 expenditures. Once an individual meets the $5,000 threshold and has decided to become a
21 candidate, he or she has fifteen days to designate a principal campaign committee by filing a
22 Statement of Candidacy with the Commission. See 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1); 11 C.F.R.
23 § 101.1(a). The principal campaign committee must then file a Statement of Organization

11044301100

1 within ten days of its designation, see 2 U.S.C. § 433(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.1, and must file
2 disclosure reports with the Commission in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 434(a).

3 Payments made by a candidate or authorized committee as a condition of ballot access
4 are specifically excluded from the definition of a "contribution" under the Act. 2 U.S.C.
5 § 431(8)(B)(xii). Because the Act does not provide a similar exclusion from the definition of 6 "expenditure," fees paid by a federal candidate or authorized committee as a condition of 7 ballot access are considered to be expenditures.³ Furthermore, under the Commission's 8 "testing the waters" regulations, payments made by an individual to qualify for the ballot
9 under State law are not excluded from the definition of expenditure. 11 C.F.R.
10 § 100.131(b)(5). See also MUR 6354 (Banciella) (an individual attained "candidate" status
11 and became subject to the Act's registration and reporting requirements after paying a filing 12 fee in excess of $5,000).

13 Once Mr. Arrojo paid the Florida Department of State $10,440.00 in ballot access
14 fees, on or about April 29, 2010, he exceeded the expenditure threshold for candidacy and 15 triggered the Act's registration and reporting requirements for himself and his authorized
16 committee. As such, Mr. Arrojo should have filed a Statement of Candidacy by May 17 14, 2010, and the Committee should have filed a Statement of Organization by May 24, 2010.
18 See 2 U.S.C. §§ 432(e)(1) and 433(a). However, the Commission's website reflects that the 19 respondents did not file their Statements of Candidacy and Organization until July 13, 2010.
20 Further, Mr. Arroyo's payment of the filing fee triggered the Act's reporting requirements
21 and, as a result, the Committee was obligated to begin filing reports pursuant to 2 U.S.C.

³ Compare 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(xii) (stating a "contribution includes neither payments made by a candidate or authorized committee of a candidate as a condition of ballot access, nor payments received by any political party committee as a condition of ballot access") with 2 U.S.C. § 431(9)(B)(x) (excluding from the definition of "expenditure," "payments received by a political party committee as a condition of ballot access which are transferred to another political party committee or the appropriate State official").

1 § 434(a), beginning with the 2010 July Quarterly Report, which covers the time period from
2 April 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010. Thus, by failing to timely register and report,
3 Mr. Arrojo and the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 432(e)(1), 433(a), and 434(a),
4 respectively.

5 Other than the expenditure for the filing fee with the Florida Department of State, the 6 respondents maintain that the Committee did not raise or spend more than $5,000. Thus, in 7 light of the limited scope of the reporting violations, further Enforcement action does not
8 appear to be warranted. Accordingly, under EPS, the Office of General Counsel has scored 9 MURs 6374 and 6408 as low-rated matters and, therefore, in furtherance of the Commission's
10 priorities as discussed above, the Office of General Counsel believes that the Commission
11 should exercise its prosecutorial discretion and dismiss these matters. See Heckler v. Chaney,
12 470 U.S. 821 (1985). Additionally, this Office recommends that the Commission remind Jose
13 Rolando "Roly" Arrojo concerning the timely filing of the Statement of Candidacy, pursuant 14 to 2 U.S.C. § 432(e), and Roly Arrojo for Congress and Jose Rolando Arrojo, in his official
15 capacity as treasurer, concerning the timely filing of the Statement of Organization and 16 financial disclosure reports, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(a) and 434(a).

17 IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

18 The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission dismiss MUR 6374
19 and MUR 6408, close the file, and approve the appropriate letters. Additionally, this Office
20 recommends that the Commission remind Jose Rolando "Roly" Arrojo concerning the timely
21 filing of the Statement of Candidacy, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 432(e), and Roly Arrojo for 11044301102

1 Congress and Jose Rolando Arrojo, in his official capacity as treasurer, concerning the timely
2 filing of the Statement of Organization and financial disclosure reports, pursuant to 2 U.S.C.
3 §§ 433(a) and 434(a).
